JASON E. FRANKEL, DC
 Dr. Jason Frankel received his Doctor of Chiropractic degree from the University of Bridgeport College of Chiropractic. In addition he earned a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Rhode Island.

His primary clinical experience was in the physical Medicine Department at the Hartford Medical Group, a Hartford Hospital affiliate. While there, he worked together with medical practitioners to combine manual techniques and traditional medical approaches to treat spinal and pelvic conditions.

WHY CHOOSE MUSCULOSKELETAL THERAPY & REHABILITATION?
 I am a highly trained specialist. I believe in a team approach to complex spinal conditions. Musculoskeletal Therapy & Rehabilitation is networked with the region's premier spine specialists to deliver the highest quality research supported care available.

I am:
 Board Certified in the State of Connecticut, have completed 8 years of college and a clinical internship.
 Lecturer to physicians, other healthcare professionals, and the community at large.
 Member of and serve in a variety of local organizations.

Personal

I am a graphic and web designer, photographer, digital editor, fine-artist, and freelance trombonist with a background in ceramics, art reproduction, and tech support. I have over 100,000 fine art prints in circulation, many years of experience in the performing arts, and have worked in both freelance and professional studio environments.

I am from Seattle, grew up in Utah, lived in Brazil, and went to school in Connecticut. I have taught art, music, photography, and Photoshop since 2005. I am addicted to jazz, reading, running, and Brazilian food, and have recently discovered sushi.
